

SOCIAL MARKET ECONOMY AS EUROPE`S ECONOMIC MODEL

International Conference, Cadenabbia/Italy, November 28-30, 2012

Organised by the Konrad-Adenauer-Foundation in cooperation with the Jean Monnet Center of Excellence, Universities of Madrid and Pavia

Programme

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 28, 2012

- 18.00 h Arrival
- 19.00 h Opening and Welcoming Session
Nico Lange, Konrad-Adenauer-Foundation Berlin
- 19.15 h Key Note: The Need for a European Social Market Economy
José María Gil-Robles, former President of the European Parliament
- Comment on Key Note
Dr. Stefan Gehrold, Konrad-Adenauer-Foundation Brussels
- 20.00 h Dinner

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 29, 2012

- I Panel: The Historical Perspective: Origins of the Social Market Economy in different Countries
Moderation: Nico Lange, Konrad-Adenauer-Foundation
- 09.00 h Key Note: The Making of the German Post-War Economy
Dr. Christian L. Glossner, University of Oxford, European Business Circle
- 9.30 h Key Note: The European enterprise as a key player in the European social model. A Historical Perspective
Prof. Daniela Felisini, University of Rome
- 10.30 h Coffee break
- 11.00 h Discussion
- 12.30 h Lunch

II Panel: Social Market Economy and main cultural traditions: Liberalism and Christianity

Moderation: Prof. Dr. Michael Wohlgemuth, Open Europe Berlin

14.30 h Key Note: Ordoliberalism and Christian Social Doctrine
Prof. Lothar Funk, University of Applied Science Düsseldorf

15.00 h Key Note: Liberalism vs. Libertarian
Prof. Markus Krienke, University of Lugano

15.30 h Discussion

16.30 h Coffee break

III Panel: Social Market Economy and the Welfare state

Moderation: Dr. Christian L. Glossner, University of Oxford, European Business Circle

17.00 h Key Note: Reforming a Welfare State: How Germany is Coping with Globalisation
Jürgen Matthes, Cologne Institute for Economic Research

17.30 h Key Note: The teachings of the Accuse (Monnet Committee) and today's Crisis
J.-Gérard Lieberherr, Member of the European Movement

18.00 h Discussion

20.00 h Dinner

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 30, 2012

IV Panel: Social Market Economy and the Monetary Economic Union

Moderation: Dr. Igor Horn, Executive in Accenture´s Management Consulting, European Business Circle

09.00 h Key Note: The Economic Advantages of a Single Currency and its Current Systemic flaws
Roland Freudenstein, Centre for European Studies Brussels

09.30 h Key Note: Reinforcing the Economic and Monetary Union and the Welfare State Policies
Prof. José Antonio Nieto, University Complutense de Madrid

10.00 h Discussion

11.00 h Coffee break

Conclusion Session:

The Social Market Economy and the Future of the European Unification

11.30 h Key Note: The Rules of a new European Order

Prof. Dario Velo, University of Pavia

12.30 h Final words

José María Gil-Robles, former President of the European Parliament

Dr. Michael Borchard, Konrad-Adenauer-Foundation Berlin

13.00 h Lunch and End of Conference