

Call for Applications

4th KAS Greece Political Academy

Ioannina, 30 June - 2 July 2017

Konrad-Adenauer-Stiftung Greece welcomes applications for its 3rd Political Academy which will take place from 30 June to 2 July 2017 in Ioannina.

The KAS Greece Political Academy offers skills development for young people who already are or want to be involved in student, youth, and local politics, as well as the civil society. Through the KAS Greece Political Academy the participants will have the chance to get a broader understanding about the complex political, social and economic environment of Greece and the EU, and get familiar with the values of the European centre-right. The objective of the Political Academy is to provide the participants with knowledge and technical expertise in order to enhance their ability to shape their political argumentation.

For those interested, the KAS Greece Political Academy offers a unique opportunity to acquire new knowledge and skills through the interaction with academics, experts and political actors. Certificates of participation will be awarded.

The Call is open to applicants from the region of Epirus up to 35 years old, with a very good command of English and Greek, active involvement in political affairs and/or the civil society, as well as a keen interest in European and Greek politics.

In order to apply, please fill in the relevant application form and send it by Sunday, 11 June 2017 to Jeroen.Kohls@kas.de. For more information, please send your queries to the same email address.
