

Internship Opportunity for Cambodian Students

Background

Freedom, justice and solidarity are the basic principles underlying the work of the Konrad-Adenauer-Stiftung (KAS). The KAS is a political foundation, closely associated with the Christian Democratic Union of Germany (CDU).

KAS has been working in Cambodia since 1994, striving to support the Cambodian people in strengthening democracy, the rule of law and human rights. Thereby, the foundation works towards creating an environment conducive to economic and social development. All programs are conceived and implemented in close cooperation with the Cambodian partners on central and sub-national levels.

KAS is mainly working in the following fields:

- Decentralization and Administrative Reform
- Strengthening Political Parties
- Parliamentary Reform
- Media Development
- Promotion of Civil, Political and Legal Education and Political Participation
- Foreign Policy Dialogue

Purpose

KAS gives young Cambodian students the opportunity to start applying their academic experiences into practice. The internship is supposed to give a greater understanding of a professional working environment in an international Political Foundation, enhance the students' ability to recognize their preferences and enabling them to make appropriate career-related choices in the future. Local students have the chance to gain valuable knowledge and experience prior to entering a professional career.

Duration

In general, the duration of the internship is three months.
