

Dr. Konrad Adenauer (1876 - 1967)
First Chancellor of the Federal Republic of Germany

Konrad Adenauer was the first Chancellor of the Federal Republic of Germany (1949
- 1963). The period of his chancellorship is associated with the establishment of democracy within Germany, the reconciliation of Germany with its neighbours, the economic boom and the unification of Europe.
The Konrad-Adenauer-Stiftung is committed to preserve Konrad Adenauer's legacy.

Dr. Andreas Jacobs
-Resident Representative-8, Salah El Din, 7th floor
Zamalek, Cairo

Tel: +20 -2- 273 774 50
Fax: +20 -2- 273 774 54

info.kairo@kas.de www.kas.de/aegypten

International Cooperation

The Konrad-Adenauer-Stiftung in Egypt

The Konrad-Adenauer-Stiftung was established in 1964. Since then, the Foundation has been working on attaining peace, freedom and democracy in Germany, Europe and the whole world. Through a variety of activities such as seminars, conferences, scholarships and exhibitions, the Foundation supports democracy, social market economy, rule of law, and the unification of Europe. In Germany, 18 civic education centers represent the Foundation. Worldwide, around 70 offices pursue the institution's objectives in more than 100 countries. In Egypt, the Foundation opened its office in 1979.

Sustainable democracy and rule of law

Social market economy and social equality

Workshops and seminars promoting civic education

Conferences discussing current political issues

The Konrad-Adenauer-Stiftung in Berlin and in Sankt Augustin near Bonn

Political participation and civic engagement

Interreligious dialogue and intercultural understanding

Meetings between scholars and Egyptian partners

Discussion forums bringing together political, social and religious functionaries

Political analysis and information

Lectures and talks held by German politicians

