

MICHAEL MERTES
RESIDENT REPRESENTATIVE TO ISRAEL
KONRAD-ADENAUER-STIFTUNG

Lloyd George Street 6
P. O. Box 8348
Jerusalem 91082
Israel

Phone +972-2-567 18 30
Fax +972-2-567 18 31

June 2012

CURRICULUM VITAE

Born 26 March 1953 in Bonn

Childhood (1955-1966) in Marseille, Paris and Moscow

Married to Barbara Rembser-Mertes (mathematics and physics teacher)

Four children (1980, 1984, 1987, 1990)

Education

- 1972 Graduation from high school (Abitur, classical languages):
Aloisiuskolleg, Bonn
- 1972-1974 Military service, reserve officer training
- 1974-1980 Law studies at Bonn and Tübingen Universities and at the London School of Economics and Political Science
(with a focus on Public International Law, Philosophy of Law, Philosophy of Science)
- Konrad-Adenauer-Stiftung scholarship (1975-1980)
- 1981/83 First/Second State Examination in Law

Career

- 1981 Parliamentary Assistant to Carl Otto Lenz MP
- 1984 Federal Ministry of Defense:
Counsellor, Contracts Department at the Federal Office of Defense Technology and Procurement
- 1984-1985 Federal Chancellery:
Counsellor, Personnel Section
- 1985-1986 Federal Chancellery:
Deputy Head, Cultural and State-Church Affairs Section

- 1986-1987 Federal Ministry for the Environment, Nature Conservation and Nuclear Safety:
Bureau Chief, Minister's Office
- 1987-1993 Federal Chancellery:
Head, Speech Writing Section
- 1993-1995 Federal Chancellery:
Director, Policy Planning
- 1995-1998 Federal Chancellery:
Director-General, Policy Planning and Cultural Affairs
- 1998 Interim retirement after change of government
- 1998-2002 Weekly "Rheinischer Merkur":
Deputy Editor-in-Chief and domestic affairs editor,
then foreign affairs editor
- 2003-2006 Political consultancy "dimap consult":
Partner; at the same time work as a freelance author
- 2006 State Government of North Rhine-Westphalia:
State Secretary for Federal, European and International Affairs
(Düsseldorf), Plenipotentiary of North Rhine-Westphalia to the Federation
(Berlin)
- 2008 Additional responsibility: Media Affairs
- 2010 Interim retirement after change of government
- 2010-2011 Work as a freelance author
- 2011 Konrad-Adenauer-Stiftung:
Resident Representative to Israel (Jerusalem)

Publications

Since the mid-1980s, Michael Mertes has continuously published articles and book chapters on European and international affairs, inter-religious dialogue, and (comparative) government.

The newspapers and journals to which he contributed include Aufbau, Frankfurter Allgemeine Zeitung, International Herald Tribune, Neue Zürcher Zeitung, The Independent and several newspapers belonging to the Project Syndicate network, as well as Dædalus, Foreign Affairs, Internationale Politik/Transatlantic Edition, Obshchaya Tetrad, Politique étrangère, Prospect, The Washington Quarterly and Transit.

He is the author of German Questions – European Answers (Немецкие вопросы – европейские ответы), Moscow 2001, and he co-authored and co-edited (with Steven Muller and Heinrich August Winkler) In Search of Germany, New Brunswick and London 1996. Mertes also published a German translation of William Shakespeare's Sonnets, Bonn 2006, and of selected Elegies and Songs & Sonnets by John Donne (Berlin 2009 and 2011, forthcoming).

Selected political and voluntary involvements

Member of the CDU since 1971

Member of the Kuratorium, Freunde und Förderer des Leo Baeck Instituts e.V.
(<http://www.leobaeck.de/>) since 1988

Member of the International Advisory Council of the Moscow School of Political Studies
since 2000 (<http://eng.msps.su/advCouncil.html>)

Member of the International Board of Directors of the Institute for Human Sciences at Boston University 2001-2009 (<http://www.bu.edu/euforyou/IHS/ihs.html>)

Member of the Commission for Contemporary History since 2002 (<http://en.kfzg.de/>)

Member of the Drafting Committee for the CDU's new party platform
(Grundsatzprogramm) 2006-2007
(<http://www.grundsatzprogramm.cdu.de/page/35.htm>)