

High-Level Dialogue on

“The need of Europe in the Middle East peace process”

Tuesday, 25th January 2011

hosted jointly by

Meseuro
&
Konrad-Adenauer-Stiftung

Venue
European Parliament
Room PHS7, C 050

(Conference language: English)

18.00 h Registration & Cocktail Reception

18.30 h Welcome by the Chairs

Mario Mauro, MEP

Chairman of the PdL group at the European Parliament, President Meseuro

Gianni Pittella, MEP

1st Vice-President European Parliament, President Meseuro

18.40 h Opening Remarks

Massimo d'Alema

Former Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs, Italy
Chairman of Italianieuropei and FEPS

Dr Hans-Gert Pöttering, MEP

Former President of the European Parliament;
President of the Konrad-Adenauer-Stiftung

19.00 h

Key note address

"Lessons learned from previous rounds of peace negotiations and challenges for the on-going process"

Meir Sheetrit

Knesset Member and Former Minister for Justice, Finances and Home Affairs, Israel

19.20 h

Panel discussion

"What role could and should the European Union and its member states play in the Middle East Peace Process?"

Andrea Amato, President Mediterranean Institute Italy IMED

Michael Gahler, MEP, EPP

Dr Martin Beck, Middle East Expert,
KAS-Representative Jordan

Pier Antonio Panzeri, MEP, S&D

20.15 h

Discussion

20.30 h

Closing Remarks

Massimo d'Alema

Former Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs, Italy

Dr Hans-Gert Pöttering, MEP

Former President of the European Parliament;
President of the Konrad-Adenauer-Stiftung

For more information, please contact:

Konrad-Adenauer-Stiftung - "Multinational Dialogue on Development Policy"

Andrea E. Ostheimer de Sosa, Programme Director

Miriam Fischer, Programme Assistant

Tel +32 (0) 2 743 07 43 - Fax +32 (0) 2 743 07 49

e-mail: entpol@eukas.eu

Meseuro-Centre for Mediterranean Europe Foundations

Letizia Caccavale Tel +39 (0)34 50 69 09 44 e-mail: info@meseuro.eu