

MEETING OF THE AFRICAN EXPERTS STUDY GROUP ON INTERNATIONAL CRIMINAL JUSTICE

Konrad Adenauer Stiftung's African Experts Study Group on International Criminal Justice held its 2014 annual meeting in Arusha, Tanzania between November 11th and 14th 2014. The meeting brought together experts from South Africa, Kenya, Nigeria, Zimbabwe and DRC.

The meeting was officially opened by Justice Augustino Ramadhani, the President of African Court on Human and People's Rights. In attendance was also the Registrar of the African Court on Human and People's Rights, Dr. Robert Eno.

Dr. Wulff (L) and Justice Ramadhani (R) at the official Opening

Participants took stock of the general trends and developments of international law in 2013/2014 as well as their own experiences in contributing to the second edition of KAS' African Experts publication.

Justice Ramadhani (r) receiving copies of the second edition from Dr. Wulff (l). Looking on (m) is Dr. Robert Eno, the Registrar

The group also adopted the concept note for 2015 publication and discussed their respective abstracts.

In addition to the internal discussions, the group visited the East African Court of Justice where they held discussions with Justice Dr. Emmanuel Ugirashebuja, the President of EACJ and took a tour of the Court.

Group during the tour of the EACJ

Group in discussions with the President of EACJ

Similar visit and tour was undertaken at the African Court on Human and People's Rights where the group was met by Dr. Robert Eno, the Registrar.

Members being briefed in the Court's library

Members during the discussions with the Registrar