

THE KAS ENERGY SECURITY FELLOWSHIP PROGRAMME AT EUCERS KING'S COLLEGE LONDON 2016

The Konrad-Adenauer-Foundation funds a 12-month research stay for a Fellow at the European Centre for Energy and Resource Security (EUCERS) at King's College London. The candidate has to be Mexican. The Fellowship includes funding which will pay a monthly stipend of £1,807 for the fellow, university fees and a conference subsistence. In the case of current PhD students at another institution in Mexico, the monthly stipend will be of £1,954. During the selection process, preference will be given to enrolled PhD students.

For more information, please contact us using the details below.

The topic of this year's Fellowship is "Redrawing the Global Energy Map: Mexico's Energy Reforms"

The application deadline is on 15th May, 2016. After reviewing applications, candidates will be invited for online interview. The decision of the committee will be communicated to the successful applicant in writing by 30th June, 2016. The scholarship starts on 12th September, 2016.

The Fellow will be required to write a 35-50 page research paper (in German or English), for which KAS and EUCERS retain the (publishing) rights. A publication can be in print or online. The opportunity to present the results of the research in conferences hosted by KAS or EUCERS may develop within this framework. Cooperation beyond this between the scholar, KAS and EUCERS is subject to mutual agreement but is expected and encouraged. The Fellow will have the opportunity to participate in a workshop series on this topic and collect data from these sessions for their research study.
