German House: home to five organisations

Star Business Desk

The German House, home to five organisations, open-ed in the capital yesterday, according to a statement.

Dirk Niebel, German federal minister for economic cooperation and development; Holger Michael, German ambassador to Bangladesh, and Musharraf Hossain Bhuiyan, secretary of Economic Relations Division, attended the opening ceremony.

German Development Organisations such as GIZ, KfW and DEG have already been part of the House. The Bangladesh-German Chamber of Commerce and Industry and Konrad Adenauer Foundation have also joined the House.

"It is only by keeping up a close exchange and tackling the challenges together that we will manage to find ideas and solutions for the future and make our development cooperation even more effective," said Niebel.
