

Program

Eleventh „State of Europe“

The „State of Europe“ is an annual event on the future of the European Union (EU). It involves high representatives of the EU and takes place in Berlin, a place of Europe's destiny, where on the 9th of November 1989 the great and no longer divided Europe has become possible with the fall of the Berlin wall.

9th November 2020
Allianzforum (Pariser Platz), Berlin
Germany

Monday, 9th November 2020

7:00 pm

Opening remarks

Prof. Dr. Norbert Lammert

President of the German Bundestag (ret.)
Chairman of the Konrad-Adenauer-Stiftung

„State of Europe“

David Sassoli, MEP

President of the European Parliament

Remarks

Michael Schwarz

Managing Director of the Stiftung Mercator

Panel discussion

Daniel Caspary, MEP

Chairman of the CDU/CSU delegation inside the EPP group Member of the European Parliament

and

young Europeans

moderated by

Anke Plättner

Board Member of „Internationale Journalisten-Programme e.V.“, Projec Director of „We are Europe“

7:55 pm

Closing remarks

Dr. Volker Hassemer

Chairman of the Board of Management of Stiftung Zukunft Berlin, Senator (ret.)