Translation: One soldier killed, army barracks burned and an election bureau destroyed in northern and central Nigeria.

The operations carried out by the soldiers of the Caliphate this week resulted in the killing of at least one Nigerian soldier, wounding others and burning an army camp. They also blew up an election bureau. This during seven different attacks that were carried out in villages in the areas of (Borno) and (Yobe) in northern Nigeria to villages in the (Koji) area in the country's centre.

The destruction of two Nigerian army camps with mortars and grenades

By the glory of God Almighty, on Wednesday Rajab 24, the soldiers of the Caliphate attacked a camp of the murtad Nigerian army in the village of (Buni Gari) in the area of (Yobe). Five mortar grenades were fired causing significant damage. Also, the aforementioned army camp was attacked on Monday Rajab 29 with 30 mm grenades. According to an-Naba's dedicated source this enabled the Mujahidin to attack with nearly 20 grenades. The damage was significant, praise be God.

On the same day the soldiers of the Caliphate attacked a second murtad Nigerian army camp in the village of (Malam Fatori) in the area of (Borno) by mortar shelling; the damage was significant, praise be God.

Burning of army barracks near (Mangoro)

From (Yobe) to (Borno) where the soldiers of the Caliphate on Wednesday Rajab 24 attacked barracks of the murtad Nigerian army with machine guns, in the village (Mile 90) close to (Mangoro) in the area of (Borno). They fled, the Mujahidin captured several weapons, burned the base and returned safely to their base. Praise be God.

One killed in attacks on barracks in (Gamboro)

Related news. On Friday Rajab 26 soldiers of the Caliphate detonated an explosive device on a patrol of the murtad Nigerian army that passed by in the village of (Gamboro) in the area of (Borno). One was killed, two others wounded. Praise be God.

The Mujahidin also carried out an attack in the same village on Sha'aban 1. A dedicated source to an-Naba' confirmed that the Mujahidin attacked the base with a variety of weapons. [The soldiers] fled and the Mujahidin safely returned to their base. Praise be God.

Bombing a murtad election station in the centre of Nigeria

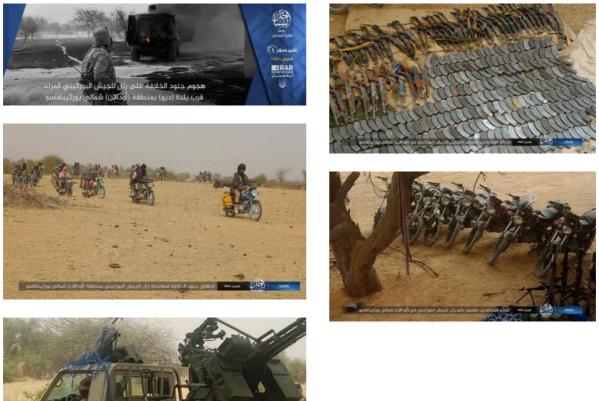

From north to central Nigeria, where the soldiers of the Caliphate, on Monday Rajab 29, bombed one of the polling stations meant for the shirk elections. [The attack occurred in] the village of (Kohiri) in the area of (Koji) in central Nigeria. Four explosive devices were detonated causing partial destruction of the building. The Mujahidin safely returned to their base. Praise be God.

Local media published pictures after the explosion, subsequently the murtad Nigerian government declared they would open an investigation on those responsible. The attack was carried out in an attempt to counter the shirk election campaign and to prevent people from partaking in them.

• ISGS – Operations in Burkina Faso (18 pictures – note: due to the extremely graphic nature of the pictures only a few have been displayed; in the picture set there are nine picture sets each consisting out of six pictures of maimed bodies, totalling 54 mortal casualties. Furthermore, ISGS included a picture set of at least four captives, this set was also removed from this report.)
