

Conference

Multilingualism and Linguistic Human Rights – The Next Step

PROGRAMME

Tuesday, 19 September 2017

Sunnyside Park Hotel, Princess of Wales Terrace and Carse O' Gowrie Road, Parktown, JOHANNESBURG

08:30 – 09:30	Registration
09:30 – 09:50	Opening & Welcome Mrs Thoko Mkhwanazi-Xaluva (Chair, CRL Rights Commission)
09:50 – 10:05	The role of the KAS in South Africa Mr Henning Suhr (Resident Representative, KAS South Africa)
10:05 – 10:15	Setting the scene: The need for an honest reflection on multilingualism and linguistic human rights Prof Wannie Carstens (School of Languages, NWU, Potchefstroom Campus & former Deputy Chair of PanSALB)
10:15 – 10:55	Linguistic human rights and the Constitution Prof Hennie Strydom (Faculty of Law, University of Johannesburg)
11:00 – 11:40	Multilingualism and education: what we should know and keep in mind Prof Mbulungeni Madiba (Faculty of Education, UCT & former Chair of PanSALB)

- 11:45 – 12:30 Multilingual repertoires and multilingual pedagogies in HE in SA
- Prof Susan Coetzee Van Rooy (School of Languages, Faculty of Humanities, NWU Vanderbijlpark Campus)
- 12:30 – 13:45 LUNCH BREAK
- 13:45 – 14:25 Activism for multilingualism
- Prof Pamela Maseko (School of Languages: African Language Studies, Rhodes University)
- 14:30 – 15:30 Open floor discussion: “How do we implement?”
- Moderator: Dr Langa Khumalo (Director of Language Planning and Development, UKZN)
- 15:30 – 15:40 Where to now?
- Prof Wannie Carstens
- 15:40 – 15:55 Closing comments
- Prof Luka Mosoma (Deputy Chair, CRL Rights Commission)
- 15:55 Closing and Departure