

Bio

Prof. Christi van der Westhuizen (Ph.D.) is an author, political analyst, academic and former journalist. Her books include Sitting Pretty: White Afrikaans Women in Postapartheid South Africa (forthcoming, 2017), Working Democracy: Perspectives on South Africa's Parliament at 20 Years (2014) and White Power & the Rise and Fall of the National Party (2007).

She started her working life at the anti-apartheid weekly Vrye Weekblad and later worked as Associate Editor at the global news agency Inter Press Service. Her columns and articles have appeared in the Sunday Times, The Star, Cape Times, Mail & Guardian, Beeld, die Burger and Netwerk24, and she is a regular on radio. She received the Mondi Paper Newspaper Award for her political columns.

Currently Van der Westhuizen works as Associate Professor in Sociology at the University of Pretoria, and has been engaged in the transformation processes of the university. She has held associateships with the Institute for Reconciliation and Social Justice, Free State University and the Institute for Humanities in Africa (HUMA), University of Cape Town, and is an associate of the Democracy Works Foundation.