

PROGRAMME

PLAY HANDBALL SUPERCUP

Train-the-Trainer WORKSHOP
“play fair for a sustainable future”

Friday, 27th October 2017

WHERE: German International School Cape Town/DSK
 (28 Bay View Ave, Tamboerskloof, outdoor-sports-field)

This workshop equips you with the knowledge and tools on how to use the team sport handball as a tool to address climate change and teach knowledge about environmental issues.

What to bring:

- Please bring sport apparel/ comfortable clothing and sport shoes for the practical session.
- A pen and paper for notes
- Great excitement and will to share knowledge and experiences

Programme (Status 23.10.2017)

When	What	How
8:00 – 8:30	Registration & Welcome
8:30-9:30	Session 1: Environmental Issues & Sport - What kind of environmental challenges are we facing? - Sport for development: Why is sport important and how can it be used to solve such issues? - Theory	Plenum (by Waste-ED(C.Mostert & PHZA/N.Scholl)
09:30 - 09:50	Session 2: Structure of Training & Introduction in the Manual - Training Methodology & Structure; Introduction in the manual - Theory	Plenum (by PHZA)
09:50-10:10	Tea Break
10:10-12:00	Session 3: Recycling & Soil - How to play the AIR + WATER games? - Theory & Praxis	Plenum & Group Work (by PHZA)
12:00-13:00	Lunch
13:00-14:30	Session 4: Air + Water - How to play the AIR + WATER games? - Theory & Praxis	Plenum & Group Work (by PHZA)
14:30-15:00	Recap, Evaluation & Fare well

Kindly supported by

Our partners

