

South Africa votes 2019

Issue 1: Corruption and the failure of Governance

Mail & Guardian, Konrad Adenauer Stiftung and the Wits School of Governance invite you to a critical thinking forum on Corruption and the failure of governance, ahead of this year's general elections.

Corruption is not simply the result of a governance failure. Governance worsens the extent and severity of corruption. Effective governance might only act as a constraint on the occurrence of corruption. The most effective way to limit corruption is ending impunity.

DATE : Tuesday April 2, 2019 VENUE : Wits School of Governance, 2 St David's Place, Parktown, Johannesburg TIME : 18h00 for 18h30 until 20h30 RSVP : mahlodim@mg.co.za or call 011 250 7399

