

The Constitution @ Work: Breakfast Discussion Series 2019

Join us for the first in a series of breakfast discussions for 2019, hosted by the Centre for Constitutional Rights (CFCR) and the Konrad Adenauer Foundation (KAS).

TOPIC: Post Elections 2019: Finding our Way back to a Constitutional Democracy
Unpacking critical reforms needed, potential cabinet appointments, priorities for the 6th democratic Parliament and managing the expectations of citizens

SPEAKERS:

- Ms Elnari Potgieter - Senior Project Leader of the IJR's South African Reconciliation Barometer (SARB). The SARB is the Southern African core partner of the Afro-barometer, the world's longest running public opinion survey into matters of democratic and economic governance.
- Mr Wayne Duvenage - Chief Executive Officer of the Organisation Undoing Tax Abuse (OUTA). OUTA is an apolitical civil activist organisation. OUTA's projects involve investigating cases of corruption and maladministration across all spheres of government.
- Dr Theuns Eloff - Executive Director of the FW de Klerk Foundation, regular media commentator and author of the 2017 book Turning Point - South Africa at a Crossroads, which provides perspective on current issues facing South Africa, such as lack of service delivery, education, ailing economy and corruption.
