

INVITATION

The Socio-Economic Rights Project at the Dullah Omar Institute, University of the Western Cape, invites you or a representative from your organisation, to;

Roundtable discussion on the role of corporations in the realisation of human rights in South Africa

Date

Friday 23 November 2018

Time

10:00 – 13:00

Venue

1G, School of Public Health, University of the Western Cape

RSVP

Ms Valma Hendricks

Email: vhendricks@uwc.ac.za / Tel: (021) 959 3707

Please RSVP before 16 November 2018

This roundtable provides an opportunity for academics, community-based organizations, non-governmental organizations, policy makers and stakeholders to discuss the impact of the activities of corporations for the realisation of human rights in South Africa. It will also include a discussion on accountability mechanisms for ensuring that the activities of corporations are respectful of human rights. And then turns to the ways the citizens, civil society and government can cooperate in implementing the engagement requirements to foster democratic enforcement of socioeconomic rights.

Guest Speaker

Mr Mthunzi Mdwaba

Former Chairperson of Council of the University of the Western Cape (UWC)
Chairman of CSR and Business Human Rights Policy Working Group of the International Organisation of Employers (IOE)

Wandisa Phama

Acting Deputy Director
Centre for Applied Legal Studies

We very much hope you will be able to join us.