

Symposium on “Catalysing indigenous languages”

Friday, 27 September, 2019

University of Limpopo, DMSTE

Registration: 08:00-08:30 | Programme Director: Dr Makamu

Time	Session	Speakers
08:30-8:45	Welcoming and opening remarks	Dr Rammala, Director, School of Languages and Communication Nancy Msibi, KAS
8:45-9:00	Introduction of ILAF members	Dr Conrad Steenkamp ILAF
09:00-9:05	Introduction of keynote speaker	Ms Letsoalo, MP University of Limpopo
9:05-9:45	Keynote address	Prof Madadzhe, VC Learning and Teaching
9:45-10:00	Discussions
TEA BREAK
10:40-11:00	Topic to be determined	Nomzolisi Jantjies CPUT
11:00-11:20	Thutamahlale/Science Education- Dikgopolo tše dingwe	Philip (Ngoato) Nare Necsa
11:20-11:40	The role of young researchers in catalysing indigenous languages.	Johannes, Seanego (University of Limpopo, MA Student)
11:40-12:00	TBA	Thapelo, Monyela (University of Limpopo, Student)
12:00-12:20	Reflecting on practice from South African Higher Education	Mashatole MA (University of Limpopo)
12:20-12:40	The use of media text to teach language schools, possibilities of

Symposium on “Catalysing indigenous languages”

Friday, 27 September, 2019

University of Limpopo, DMSTE

Registration: 08:00-08:30 | Programme Director: Dr Makamu

	multilingualism
12:40-13:00	Multilingualism, democracy and development	Dr Conrad, Steenkamp
Lunch break
14:00-14:20	Multilingualism in business-an impediment or an advantage?	Zama Bekweni
14:20-15:00	Way forward and closure	Dr Conrad Steenkamp