

SARChI Chair, Dullah Omar Institute, and
Department of Political Studies, UWC

invite you to

International Conference: 25 April 2019

National and Provincial Elections: 8 May 2019:
Key questions: Populism, provincialism, womxn,
election credibility

The national and provincial elections of 8 May 2019 are regarded by many as the most important since the first democratic elections of 1994. Four key questions are addressed by four panels of experts.

- The politics of populism: How does South Africa fare?
- Do provincial politics matter?
- How does the womxn's agenda fare in the elections?
- E-rigged elections: election credibility?

Speakers include:

Ralph Mathekga

Senior Researcher, Centre for Humanities Research
(CHR), UWC

Professor Cherrel Africa

Department of Political Studies, UWC

Rev Courtney Sampson, Provincial Electoral Officer,
IEC, Western Cape

Ebrahim Fakir

Director of Programmes at Auwal Socio-Economic Research Institute (ASRI)

DATE: Thursday, 25 April 2019

TIME: 10h00 - 16h00

VENUE: School of Public Health, Room 1C&D, University of the Western Cape

Please RSVP to Mandy Cupido at mccupido@uwc.ac.za (by 22 April 2019)