

The Konrad-Adenauer-Stiftung Israel and
The International Institute for Counter-Terrorism (ICT) at IDC, Herzliya cordially invite you to a Keynote event on:

Europe and Israel: New Shared Terrorist Threats and Opportunities for Cooperation

Tuesday, December 2nd 2014

Djanogly Hall, Konrad Adenauer Conference Center,
Mishkenot Sha'ananim, Jerusalem

The continued instability in large parts of North Africa and the Middle East (MENA), rapid proliferation of new terrorist actors in this space, and increased flow of foreign fighters between Europe and MENA create multiple new terrorist threats for Europe and Israel.

The purpose of this policy-oriented event is to map the new challenges, analyze them, and devise appropriate policy guidelines for dealing with the emerging common threats, in line with our shared democratic values and the rule of law.

16:45 Gathering and Reception

17:00 Greetings: Dr. Michael Borchard, Director, Konrad-Adenauer-Stiftung Israel

17:10 Panel Discussion:

Brig. Gen. (Res.), Yossi Kupperwasser, Director General, Ministry of Strategic Affairs

Ambassador Lars Faaborg-Andersen, Head of the Delegation of the European Union to the State of Israel

Dr. Michael Borchard, Director, Konrad-Adenauer-Stiftung Israel

Introduction & Moderating:

Dr. Amichai Magen, Head of the Governance & Political Violence Program, ICT;
Lauder School of Government, Diplomacy, and Strategy, Interdisciplinary Center Herzliya (IDC)

To register please RSVP to: palina.kedem@kas.de