

Jerusalem Center
for Public Affairs

Konrad
Adenauer
Stiftung

Conference:

80 Years since the Munich Agreement

September 5, 2018

at the Jerusalem Center for Public Affairs, 13 Tel Hai St.

9:30-10:00 Registration

10:00-10:30 Opening Remarks:

Amb. Dore Gold - President, Jerusalem Center

Dr. Alexander Brakel - Director, Konrad-Adenauer-Stiftung Israel

10:30-12:00 First Session: The Munich Agreement as History and Analogy

Chair: Dr. Fiamma Nirenstein - Former member of the Italian Parliament;
Jerusalem Center

Prof. Shlomo Avineri - Hebrew University

Dr. Martin Kramer - Shalem College; Washington Institute for Near East Policy

Melanie Phillips - Journalist and columnist for The Times (UK) and the Jerusalem Post

Responder: Dr. Joel Fishman - Jerusalem Center

12:00-12:30 Lunch Break

12:30-14:00 Second Session: Lessons for the Future

Chair: Col. (ret.) Dr. Jacques Neriah - Former Foreign Policy Advisor for Prime Minister Yitzhak Rabin; Jerusalem Center

Amb. Dore Gold - President, Jerusalem Center

Brig.-Gen. (res.) Yossi Kuperwasser - Former Director General of the Israel Ministry of Strategic Affairs; Jerusalem Center

Registration required: jcpa.org/conference

Entrance to conference for confirmed registrants only

The event will be available via live streaming