

The future of the EU's cohesion and agricultural policies – German and Central European aspects and visions

Date and venue: 18th June 2013, 12:30–14:30 h, Hungarian Institute of International Affairs (HIIA), 1016 Budapest, Bérc utca 13-15.

Moderator: László J. Kiss, Editor-in-chief, Foreign Policy Review, HIIA

Programme

From 11:30 h a light lunch will be provided.

Opening

László J. Kiss, Editor-in-chief, Foreign Policy Review, HIIA

Frank Spengler, Resident Representative of the Konrad-Adenauer-Stiftung in Hungary

Panel discussion

Bálint Ódor, Deputy State Secretary, Ministry of Foreign Affairs:

The cohesion policy in the Multiannual Financial Framework 2014-2020: Hungarian perspectives

Dr. Peter Becker, Deputy Head of Research Division, Stiftung Wissenschaft und Politik:

Cohesion policy in a German perspective

Zsolt Feldman, Deputy State Secretary for Agricultural Economy, Ministry of Rural Development:

The Common Agricultural Policy and Hungary: interests and challenges

Dr. Peter Pascher, Department of Business and Rural Development, Deutscher Bauernverband e.V.:

The future of the Common Agricultural Policy: a German perspective

Discussion

The working language is English.