

Agenda Workshop CNRP Youth Movement

Cooperation-Workshop of CNRP Youth Movement and KAS Cambodia to prepare a working paper for the organizational development of CNRP Youth. Its aim is to serve as an informal exchange to give insights about the experience of Youth Movement in Germany. The focus of the Workshop will be the Organization of a youth wing. The workshop should not be seen as a formal guideline for effective youth work but rather as a Q&A-Session. At the End, responsible people of the Youth Organization will work out a working paper as a guideline for the next weeks or months, which will be revised by KAS Cambodia.

Date: Tuesday, 22nd of April 2014, 8:30 a.m. – 5:00 p.m. (not fixed)

Location: KAS Office Phnom Penh

Participants:

- Konstanze Fuchs, expert from Germany
- Syvan Oum, KAS Cambodia, moderator
- Denis Schrey, country representative of KAS Cambodia
- 25 members of CNRP Youth (see list of participants provided by Soksan)
- Someone who takes the minutes, especially the outcome

Timeline for the Workshop

08:30 – 08:45 Welcome Round

Short introduction of Konstanze

Every member introduces himself and gives a short statement on his expectation about the workshop

08:45– 09:15 Organizing a Youth Movement Part I Organizational Chart as the basis for Youth Work

Presentation by Konstanze Fuchs

- Organizational Chart of JU Germany as a best-practice example for democratic principles: from regional to national level
- If available until the Workshop: Organizational Chart of CDYAP Philippines

09:15 – 10:00 Question & Answer Session/Discussion

10:00 – 10:30 Coffee break

10:30 – 11:15 Organizing a Youth Movement Part II Organizational Guideline for sub-national level

- Example of the Organizational Guideline JU Koeln (regional level):
  1. Executive board
  2. Committee member
  3. General Assembly
  4. Working Groups
  5. The process of writing motions
  6. Municipality level

- Cooperating the work of different levels

09:15 – 10:00 Question & Answer Session/Discussion

12:00 – 13:30 Lunch

13:30 – 14:15 Organizing a Youth Movement Part III
Statutes as an orientation for new and present members

- 3 short examples:
  - YEPP (Youth of European's People's Party) supra-national level
  - JU Cologne (Youth organization of CDU in Germany) regional level
  - CDYAP Philippines, national level
- Basic program JU Germany: example for the independence of Youth Movements
- Link to the ongoing process of CNRP as an example for the youth wing
- Handout of CDYAP Doctrine, statutes of YEPP (in English) and the table of contents of JU basic program (in Khmer) for the discussion and the internal ongoing process

14:15 – 15:00 Question & Answer Session/Discussion

15:00 – 15:15 Coffee Break

15:15 – 17:00 Final Session → Next steps and Guideline for the Working Paper

- Workshop Closing
- The moderator (Syvan) prepares a first draft in cooperation with Konstanze, Soksan and the participants as guideline for the working paper
  - Organizational Chart for CNRP
  - Organizational Guidelines and Duties for Members
  - Statutes/guideline for Statutes
- Can the Vision/Mission/Goals section of the Active Plan 2014 be enlarged? Does it fit to motivate the youth to join the party? If not, what can be improved? (does every participant have access to the action plan?)

- Focus on the paper should be rather structure and statutes than actions, because there are already many ideas in the action plan
- Nomination of max. 4 responsible persons to continue the working paper with the main points of the Presentation and Discussion
- The selected people should have enough time in the next two weeks to meet at least twice

Outcome of the workshop:

- Who is the responsible person for the Working Group?
- What are the main points of the working paper?
- When is the next meeting in a smaller group to work on it?

Possible Meeting Dates with KAS for the working paper: 6th, 7th or 8th of May.