

Public Lecture
“Democratic Kampuchea’s Foreign Policy: A Leftover from the Chinese Cultural Revolution”

Date: 18 August 2017, 8:30am - 11:30am
Venue: CICP Conference Room, Phnom Penh

Organized by
Cambodian Institute for Cooperation and Peace

Supported by:
Konrad Adenauer Stiftung

08:30 – 09:00am Registration

09:00 – 09:10am Opening Remarks by H.E. Ambassador Pou Sothirak
Executive Director of the Cambodian Institute for Cooperation and Peace (CICP)

9:10 – 10:10am “Democratic Kampuchea’s Foreign Policy: A Leftover from the Chinese Cultural Revolution” present by Ambassador Julio A. Jeldres, Adjunct Research Fellow – School of History (SOPHIS), Monash University; Counsellor to the Cabinet of H.M. the King of Cambodia; Distinguished Senior Visiting Research Fellow, Cambodian Institute for Cooperation and Peace (CICP)

10:10 – 11:20am Question and Answer

11:20 – 11:30am Closing remarks by H.E. Amb. Pou Sothirak
Executive Director of the Cambodian Institute for Cooperation and Peace

11:30 – 12noon Refreshment

End of Public Lecture