

Public Lecture
“Thailand’s Political Development and its Implications in Southeast Asia”

Date: 8 September 2017, 8:30am - 11:30am
Venue: CICP Conference Room, Phnom Penh

Organized by
Cambodian Institute for Cooperation and Peace

Supported by:
Konrad Adenauer Stiftung

- 08:30 – 09:00am Registration
- 09:00 – 09:10am Opening Remarks by H.E. Ambassador Pou Sothirak
Executive Director of the Cambodian Institute for Cooperation and Peace (CICP)
- 9:10 – 10:10am “Thailand’s Political Development and its Implications in Southeast Asia” present by Dr. Paul Chambers, Lecturer and Special Advisor on International Relations at the College of ASEAN Community Studies, Naresuan University, Phitsanulok, Thailand; Part-time Lecturer at the Institute of Southeast Asian Affairs (ISEAA), Faculty of Law, Chiang Mai University, Chiang Mai, Thailand; Research Fellow at: the German Institute of Global Area Studies (GIGA) in Hamburg, Germany, the Peace Research Institute Frankfurt (PRIF) in Frankfurt, Germany, and the Cambodian Institute for Cooperation and Peace (CICP)
- 10:10 – 11:20am Question and Answer
- 11:20 – 11:30am Closing remarks by H.E. Ambassador Pou Sothirak
Executive Director of CICP
- 11:30 – 12noon Refreshment
- End of Public Lecture