

Call For Application

Training on Environmental Law For Professors And Legal Practitioners

Deadline 20 February

Konrad-Adenauer-Stiftung (KAS) in cooperation with Faculty of Law and Public Affairs of Paññāsāstra University of Cambodia (FLPA-PUC) will conduct two-day Training Series on Environmental Law for Professors and Legal Practitioners (TEPLPLP) to be held from April 4 - 5, 2019 in Siem Reap province.

YOUR BENEFITS:

- Expanding knowledge of principles of Environmental Law
- Developing teaching skills and methodologies in Environmental Law
- Building network with national and foreign professors and legal experts
- Getting a free pass to visit conservation center in Siem Reap
- Free meal, travel and accommodation

ARE YOU:

- Environmental law professor, lecturer, legal practitioner, researcher or master student?
- Committed to participating in the whole training program?
- Willing to share knowledge with other people?

APPLY NOW!

Interested candidates are invited to complete the online application. The training will be in Khmer and English. Female candidates are encouraged to apply for this training.

For further information, please contact Ms. Bin Rasmeykanyka via e-mail: Rasmeykanyka.Bin@kas.de or tel: 017 333 427