

Beethoven Freedom Announcement

Ticket Closed!

In line with COVID-19 precautions, Beethoven 250 "Freedom is the Only Purpose" is transforming into the following:

1. The exhibition "Beethoven's Life Stations" runs for a duration of one week, opening on the 29th of March at 6 pm and closing on the 4th of April, 2020 (Daily 6 pm – 8 pm) at the Grand Salon at Raffles Hotel-Le Royal.
2. The lecture by Dr. Andrew Filmer will be screened in the exhibition room in a loop.
3. The Piano Sonata OP8, No.13 will be postponed until 9 October at the 17th International Music Festival (9-11 October). For returning their original Beethoven 250 Ticket, visitors get a complimentary ticket for this Grand Opening Concert.
4. Also for returning your original Beethoven 250 Ticket, KAS will provide a food voucher for dining at Raffles.
5. Only up to 15 visitors can enter the exhibition room at the same time
6. Note by Raffles Hotel: "The hotel is providing hand sanitizer in all public areas. We will ensure we have housekeeping personnel to keep the toilets and areas clean, especially door knobs and public entrance. We are encourage for a good personal hygiene for washing hands properly or sanitizes the premises several times per day. Our team always followed strict public health guidelines, sanitized and clean in public entrance, at dining table and all thing related."

Thank you for understanding, your cooperation is appreciated
