

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS

Workshop on European Union Research

10 May 2012 | Thursday | 9h - 12h

As part of the activities organized to celebrate the Day of Europe, May 9th, the Center for International Relations at FGV will host a Graduate (PhD & Master`s level) Workshop with a focus on research in European Studies.

During the workshop selected Master's and PhD students, working on subjects related to the European Union, will have the opportunity to present and discuss their ongoing work with internationally renowned scholars in the field.

The Center for International Relations, in partnership with the Konrad Adenauer Foundation, will provide some financial support to cover part of the travel costs for students that come from outside Rio de Janeiro. The amount will depend on the number of participants.
