

European Neighbors – Region bilateral

Serbia and Hungary in new geo-economics and geopolitical circumstances after the outbreak of war in Ukraine

Date: 07. december 2022, 10.00-14.00

Place: Kinoteka (Uzun Mirkova 1, 2nd floor) and ZOOM

Languages: Serbian-German-English (simultaneous translation)

PROGRAM

10.00 Welcoming address

Jakov DEVČIĆ, Head, Konrad-Adenauer-Foundation, Offices Serbia and Montenegro

Introduction

Dragan ĐUKANOVIĆ, Director, Center for Foreign Policy, Belgrade

10.30 From a complex relationship to a constructive partnership:
Situating Serbian and Hungarian cooperation and future

Elvira KOVÁCS, Deputy Speaker of the Parliament, Chairwoman of the Committee for European Integration, Alliance of Vojvodinas Hungarians (SVM)

Nikola STOJANOVIĆ, Foreign Policy Advisor to the Prime Minister, Government of the Republic of Serbia

Márton SCHÖBERL, former State Secretary, Director of the Institute for Foreign Affairs and Trade, Budapest

Future potentials and challenges for Belgrade and Budapest under new geopolitical and geo-economic circumstances

Ivo VISKOVIĆ, Professor, Faculty of Political Sciences, University of Belgrade

Bence BAUER LL.M, Director, German-Hungarian Institute for European Cooperation, Budapest

Dragan ĐUKANOVIĆ, Director, Center for Foreign Policy, Belgrade

Moderator

Suzana GRUBJEŠIĆ, deputy Director, Center for Foreign Policy, Belgrade

13.30 Closing remarks

Snack at the invitation of the Konrad Adenauer Foundation

14.00 End of the event
