

INVITATION

The Institute for Christian Democratic Politics invites you to a debate within the framework of the Festival of Democracy - an accompanying program of the Forum 2000 conference

Democracy: how to empower citizens in the world of algorithms?

Monday, October 8th from 18:00 to 20:00 in the Austrian Cultural Forum,
Jungmannovo nám. 18, Praha 1

In the panel discussion will be:

Artur Gerasimov - Ukrainian deputy, chairman of the deputies of Petr Poroshenko Block

Marian Jurečka - deputy, vice-president of the KDU-CSL party

Discussion with the public

The focus of our event is to highlight the debate on democracy from the point of view of Christian Democracy. The current challenges call for closer cooperation and, at the same time, require growing public support. Otherwise the ditch could grow between those who have the responsibility and those who cease to understand and feel that they have been forgotten.

Please confirm your participation at: www.ikdp.cz

The discussion will take place in Czech and English. Interpreting is provided.

The debate is held by the kind support of the Konrad-Adenauer-Stiftung
