

14th Ecumenical Social Week “Promoting the Common Good: Towards the Sustainable Development of Society”, October 5th-9th, 2021 p., ONLINE – ZOOM

Program

October 5, Tuesday	October 6, Wednesday	October 7, Thursday	October 8, Friday	October 9, Saturday
15:00 – 18:00 Kyiv time Opening International Conference: “Promoting the Common Good: Towards the Sustainable Development of Society” Working languages: Ukrainian, English	10:00-13:00 Kyiv time Ukrainian Christian Academic Society Session 1: The Ecumenism of the Martyrs: Treasuring Common History of Martyrdom Event partner: RENOVABIS Working languages: Ukrainian, English	10:00-12:00 Kyiv time Discussion: Intersections of the Church’s Social Teaching, Interreligious Dialogue, and Sustainable Development Goals Event partner: UCU Institute of Religion and Society Working language: Ukrainian	10.00-14.00 Kyiv time International Seminar: Ecumenical Perspective on the Sustainable Development Event partner: KU Leuven Working languages: Ukrainian, English	10:00-12:00 Kyiv time Discussion: Accepting the Otherness of People with Special Needs: on the Way to the Transformation of the Society Event partner: “Emmaus” Center for Support of Persons with Special Needs Working languages: Ukrainian, English
Speakers: Cardinal Michael Czerny, SJ, Under-Secretary of the Migrants and Refugees Section of the Dicastery for Promoting Integral Human Development Dafina Gercheva, United Nations Development Programme Resident Representative in Ukraine Johan de Tavernier, Dean of the Faculty of Theology and Religious Studies KU Leuven, head of the Interdisciplinary Centres, Faculty of Theology and Religious Studies	11:00-13:00 Kyiv time Round table: Forest resources: quo vadis, Ukraine? Event partner: International Charity Organization "Environment.People. Law." Working language: Ukrainian	10:30-12:30 Kyiv time Discussion: Sustainable Development: Responsibility of the Business Sector Event partner: UCU Lviv Business School Working language: Ukrainian	14:00-16:00 Kyiv time Session: Ecosystem and Biodiversity Restoration as a Top Priority of the Decade: urgent steps and human needs Event partner: Laudato Si' Movement (formerly Global Catholic Climate Movement) Working languages: Ukrainian, English
	14:00-16:00 Kyiv time Discussion: Climate Change and Sustainable Cities: challenges, needs, and opportunities Event partner: Environmental Department of the Lviv City Council Working language: Ukrainian	12:30 - 14:30 Kyiv time Discussion: Conservation of Terrestrial and Marine Ecosystems Event partner: Environmental Department of the Lviv City Council Working language: Ukrainian	16:30-18:30 Kyiv time Session: Global Challenges at the End of the Fossil Fuel Era – Is It Possible, and When? Event partner: Laudato Si' Movement (formerly Global Catholic Climate Movement) Working language: Ukrainian

Program

	October 6, Wednesday 16:00-19:00 Kyiv time Ukrainian Christian Academic Society Session 2: Common Witness during Soviet Persecution: Orthodox, Catholic and Protestant Experiences Event partner: RENOVABIS Working language: Ukrainian	October 7, Thursday 14:00-16:00 Kyiv time Discussion: Metropolitan Andrey Sheptytsky – a Promoter of Sustainable Development Event partner: UCU Lviv Business School Working language: Ukrainian	October 8, Friday 18:00-19:00 Kyiv time Open lecture on peacebuilding by Dr. Adam Seligman, Professor of Religion at Boston University and Director of CEDAR Communities: Engaging with Difference and Religion Working languages: Ukrainian, English
		16:00-19:00 Kyiv time Ukrainian Christian Academic Society Session 3: Righteousness as Service to Community, Justice and Creation Event partner: RENOVABIS Working languages: Ukrainian, English
		16:30-18:30 Kyiv time Discussion: The European Green Deal and Ukraine: Possibilities and Challenges Working languages: Ukrainian, English

Registration

Details

