Call for Applications

EU-Projects Consultant

20.12.2021

Konrad-Adenauer-Stiftung (KAS) is a political foundation of the Federal Republic of Germany with over 100 country offices worldwide. KAS contributes actively and effectively to international cooperation and understanding through its programmes and projects.

Our Multinational Development Policy Programme (MDPD) based in Brussels serves as a bridge builder between the EU Institutions and the foundation's partners in the global south.

The team in Brussels works closely with the EU-Projects Team in Berlin on the acquisition and implementation of EU funded projects.

The MDPD Programme in Brussels is looking to contract the services of an EU-Project Consultant to:

- Provide expertise on and supervise EU-project proposal drafting- for grant and tender applications
- Backstop the implementation of EU-funded projects
- Conceptualize and implement project inception workshops
- Monitor opportunities for external actions (grants and service projects)

The scope of the work will amount to approximately 30 working days commencing 22nd January until 22nd April 2022.

Applicants should have:

- a university degree in political science, law, economics, European studies or social sciences
- a proven track record of experience in (EU) project management, strong proposal writing skills (EU grants and tenders) and good working knowledge of EU funding in external actions
- good understanding of the EU institutions

If you are interested in the objectives and work of the Multinational Development Policy Dialogue and if your skills and experience match our desired applicant profile, please forward the following:
