

Konrad-Adenauer-Stiftung Nordic Countries in Stockholm is looking for a full-time position starting October 1, 2022:

Project Coordinator/Research Associate

The following tasks await you:

- Planning, implementation and execution of projects in the Nordic countries
- Analysis and reporting on political developments in the Nordic countries (focus on Sweden, Norway and Finland)
- Maintaining contacts and expanding networks

You bring these qualifications with you:

- A completed master's degree
- Several years' of working experience
- Communication and organizational skills, sociability, flexibility, independent work
- Very good knowledge of English and German, knowledge of a Scandinavian language is desirable
- Willingness to travel on business at home and abroad
- Interest in politics as well as economic and socio-political issues

We offer you:

- Permanent, full-time employment, reasonable remuneration and social security according to Swedish law, company pension scheme
- An international working environment

Please send your application with a current CV, cover letter and certificates by August 24th, 2022 to:

Konrad-Adenauer-Stiftung

Blasieholmsgatan 2A

111 48 Stockholm

Sweden

OR by email (in PDF format) to: gabriele.baumann@kas.de