

cordially invite you to a

Panel Discussion

about

“Main take-aways of the COP23 for Africa – Ways ahead and possible areas of cooperation with the international community at the UN and beyond”

with opening remarks from

Ambassador Christoph Heusgen, Permanent Representative of Germany to the United Nations

on the occasion of the visit of a group of African climate change politicians and experts

(coming directly from COP23 in Bonn)

- Hon. Cyprian Awudu Mbaya, Member of Parliament of the Republic of Cameroon and Executive President of the Pan African Parliamentarians Network on Climate Change (PAPNCC)
- Rev. Prof. Aidan G. Msafiri, UN Climate Change Ambassador, Professor for Environmental Ethics and Sustainable Development at the Saint Augustine University of Tanzania (SAUT)
- Prof. Joseph Armathe Amougou, Director of the National Observatory on Climate Change for the Republic of Cameroon
- Prof. Dr. Oliver C. Ruppel, Director of the Climate Policy and Energy Security Program for Sub-Saharan Africa (CLESAP) of KAS and AR5 member of the United Nations Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change (IPCC)

Wednesday, November 22nd, 2017

1.15 pm to 2.30 pm

United Nations HQ, Conference Room 11
405 East 42nd Street, New York, NY, 10017, USA

A light lunch will be served at the Vienna Café from 1 pm

Please RSVP by Monday, November 20th, 2017

To: newyork@kas.de

(Registration is particularly important for non-UN grounds pass holders)