

(BM18-KE3-002)

Agenda

Workshop on the Roles of Public and Private Sectors to Decelerate Climate Change: Waste Management in Phayao Province as a Case Study

By

School of Law, University of Phayao & Konrad Adenauer Stiftung (KAS)

10 October 2018, at University of Phayao, Thailand

9 October 2018

18.00 – 19.30 Welcome dinner

10 October 2018

9.15-9.45 Register

9.45-10.00 Opening Ceremony

Briefing of the conference by:

- Assoc. Prof. Dr. Panarairat Srichaiyarat

Dean, School of law, University of Phayao.

Welcome remarks by:

-Prof. Dr. Mondhon Sa-nguansermisri

President of University of Phayao.

- Mr. Georg Gafron, Representative of the Konrad-Adenauer-Stiftung, Thailand

10.00-11.00 Keynote Speaker, topic “Roles of Public and Private Sectors to Decelerate Climate Change”

- Mr. Narongsak Osodthanakorn

Governor of Phayao Province

11.00-11.15 Refreshment Break.

- 11.15-12.15 Expert Speaker, topic “The legal issues relating the roles of business sectors to decelerate Climate Change”.
- Miss Thirawan Klangnarong
- Lecturer, School of law, University of Phayao.
- 12.15-13.00 Lunch Break.
- 13.00-14.00 Expert Speaker, topic “waste is a gold”
- Mr. Thawee Sareewass
- Lecturer, School of Architecture and Fine Arts, University of Phayao.
- 14.00-14.45 Good model presentation by
- Maesai Subdistrict Administration Organization
 - University of Phayao.
- 14.45-15.00 Refreshment Break.
- 15.00-16.00 Workshop
- Participants will be divided into small groups to design their community project and regulations for climate change mitigation.
- 16.00-16.45 Small Groups Presentation
- 16.45-17.00 Closing remarks by
- Assoc. Prof. Dr. Panarairat Srichaiyarat, Dean, School of law, University of Phayao.