

KAS Rule of Law team comprising Mr. Peter Wendoh, Ms Cindy Salim and Ms. Svenja Wucherpennig held a consultative meeting with Dr. Marianne Camerer, the Programme Director: Building Bridges at The Nelson Mandela School of Public Governance regarding the upcoming Leadership Training Programme on Leading in Public Life: Women, Influence, Power. The training will take place between 5th and 7th June in Cape Town, South Africa. The objective will be to promote and strengthen the inclusive representation of women who have a legal background to step up into political and public leadership roles and in this way improve the quality of legislation and rule of law. Twenty one (21) women from 6 Sub-Saharan Africa countries working in the rule of law sector will participate.
