The Conservative European Forum (CEF) is committed to strengthening political, economic, social, environmental and security cooperation between the UK and continental Europe. Closer strategic cooperation, to tackle shared challenges, will make all parties safer, more prosperous, and more influential on the world stage.

We host regular speaking meetings and networking events to bring together UK and other European stakeholders, including the diplomatic community and UK and European parliamentarians. We are committed to helping rebuild trust, not just between the UK and our European allies, but also between the Conservative Party and its sister centre-right parties throughout Europe and the European People's Party (EPP).

Led by our policy groups we make positive and constructive proposals to enhance co-operation and strengthen strategic partnerships between the UK, other European countries, and EU institutions. CEF works to promote and mainstream these ideas within the Conservative Party and wider conservative family.

Membership of the Conservative European Forum (CEF) and Young CEF is open to anyone who supports our values and close institutional, economic, political and security relations between the United Kingdom and our European neighbours, see www.conservativeeuropeanforum.com/membership

The Konrad-Adenauer-Stiftung (KAS) is a German political foundation closely associated with the Christian Democratic Union (CDU). At home as well as abroad, our civic education and dialogue programmes aim at promoting freedom, liberty, peace and justice. Our primary concerns are strengthening representative democracy, promoting European unification, expanding transatlantic relations and increasing development cooperation.

We are proud to bear the name of Konrad Adenauer. The first chancellor of the Federal Republic of Germany's name and principles guide all our work. Established in 1955 as "Society for Christian-Democratic Civic Education", the Foundation took on the name of the first Federal Chancellor in 1964.

With its projects and programmes KAS makes an active contribution to international cooperation and understanding. Our London office was opened in 1980, and has been promoting partnership and friendship between Germany and the United Kingdom ever since.

The Hanns-Seidel-Stiftung (HSS), is a largely state-funded German political foundation and public policy think tank affiliated with the Christian Social Union (CSU). Founded in 1967 and named after the former Bavarian Premier and CSU chair Hanns Seidel, the foundation's mission is "in the service of democracy, peace and development". Based in Munich, the foundation is made up of different departments and works in the fields of political analysis, civic and political education, scholarships, development cooperation and international relations. It is represented in over 50 countries around the world.

The HSS opened an office in the UK in 2019. The focus of its work lies on strengthening bilateral relations, particularly in the areas of security, defence and trade, through dialogue formats including delegations, workshops and conferences.
