CHALLENGES AND FUTURE SCENARIOS"

which will be held on May 24, 2016

The Faculty of Political Science and Journalism, Adam Mickiewicz University in Poznań

(Ul. Umultowska 89a, room 43 ground floor).

The purpose of the meeting is to exchange opinions and views and presentation of research results on the achievements, experiences and challenges related to the development of a Common Foreign and Security Policy of the European Union. We intend to engage in discussion within the following topics:

- The consequences of instability in the immediate neighborhood of Europe from the point of view of the interests / risk of the individual Member States,
- The most significant difficulties in the decision-making process of the CFSP,
- Barriers and conditions for the development of the European Union with regard to increasing competition from international actors,
- Desirable and possible directions of changes in the legal and institutional system of the EU with regard to new threats,
- The balance of achievements and major challenges for the CFSP

The intention of the organizers of special interest we would like to make these issues, which will allow us to formulate forecasts and recommendations related to the possible influence of Poland and Federal Republic of Germany on the further development of this policy.
