

UNHCR for Human Rights & Democracy
Arab World Center for Democratic Development - UniHRD
مركز العالم العربي للتنمية الديمقراطية

Konrad
Adenauer
Stiftung

PROGRAM

KAS AMMAN OFFICE | ARAB WORLD CENTER FOR DEMOCRATIC DEVELOPMENT

“Bloggers for elections’ observation”

Date: July 3rd and 4th, 2010
Place: KAS Amman Office, Jordan
Organization: KAS Amman
Arab World Center for Democratic Development (UNIHRD)

Saturday, July 3rd, 2010

09.00 h	Registration
09.30-10.30 h	Opening Session: Welcome Speech
	Konrad-Adenauer-Stiftung Amman – Jordan	Dr. Martin Beck Resident Representative
	Arab World Center for Democratic Development	Dr. Amira Mustafa Chief Executive Officer
10.30-11.30 h	Session I The Importance and Significance of the Upcoming Elections	Dr. Amjad Al-Shraideh Judge, North Amman Court Amman-Jordan
11.30-11.45 h	Coffee Break
11.45-13.30 h	Different electoral systems and the Jordanian regime	Mr. Rebhi Etwi

13.30-14.30 h	Political Participation of different charters	Dr. Amjad Al-Shraideh Judge, North Amman Court Amman-Jordan
14.30-15.30 h	Lunch
15.30-16.45 h	Youth Participation in the Jordanian Elections	Mr. Ayoub Mohammed Nammour Ms. Ala'a Burhan Arafat
17.00-19.30 h	Office Viewing: Quarter Final – Germany vs. Argentina

Sunday, July 4th, 2010

08.30 h	Registration
	Session II
09.00-09.30 h	Summery of the previous workshop day	Ms. Ala'a Mohammed
09.30-10.30 h	Question and Answer Session Why do bloggers observer? Who will they observe? How can they be neutral in observing? What are the basic principles for election observation?	Mr. Rouman Hadad
10.30-11.00 h	Coffee Break
11.00-12.30 h	Online Skills of Surveillance 1- Network Security 2- Tactical Skills	Mr. Rouman Hadad

12.30-13.30 h

Lunch

13.30-14.45 h

How to design a blog and making it popular

Ms. Ala'a Mohammed

14.45-16.00 h

Different Types of Reports

Mr. Rebhi Etwi

16.00-16.45 h

Presentation of the Implementation Plan

Dr. Amira Mustafa
Chief Executive Officer of UNIHHRD