

2019 SCHOLARSHIP ANNOUNCEMENT

KONRAD-ADENAUER-STIFTUNG

In collaboration with

UGANDA MARTYRS UNIVERSITY

The Konrad-Adenauer-Stiftung (KAS), in collaboration with Uganda Martyrs University (UMU) announces scholarships for Bachelor and Master's degree programmes in four disciplines, namely:

Long-Distance Programme

- (1) Local Governance and Human Rights (Bachelor and Masters Degree),
- (2) Democracy and Development Studies (Bachelor Degree),
- (3) Development Studies (Master's Degree),

Full- Time Programme

- (1) Research and Public Policy (Master's Degree).

The scholarships are targeted towards aspiring future leaders across a range of social, political, and economic fields. Applicants will have to prove their leadership potential in order to be considered for the scholarship.

Mission of Konrad-Adenauer-Stiftung (KAS)

Konrad-Adenauer-Stiftung (KAS) is a German political foundation that works worldwide in more than 120 countries in the fostering of social, economic and political development. KAS employs civic education on the German and international plane to promote peace, freedom, and justice. Key concerns of KAS include supporting democracy and promoting good governance. In this line the foundation pays special recognition to young people as key pillars for building sustainable democracy in the present and for the future. KAS is therefore offering opportunities for moral and material support for gifted young people to gain better qualification and skills in democracy, local governance and human rights disciplines through local scholarships.

Mission of Uganda Martyrs University (UMU)

Uganda Martyrs University is a faith-based institution, owned by the Catholic Episcopal Conference. Its mission includes the attainment of Social Justice, educating the whole person (holistic approach) and empowering the powerless. UMU's mission is derived from Christian understanding of the human person. In its approach UMU hopes to develop an integral person by providing high quality education in a conducive environment in order to produce professionals of varying academic and social competencies i.e. reflective, interpretive, analytical, problem solving and critical thinking capacities. UMU upholds a policy of non-discrimination on the basis of disability, ethnicity, gender, race or religion.

Eligibility / Selection Criteria

- > Applicants must be citizens of either Uganda or South Sudan and should not be more than 30 years for bachelors programmes, and 35 years for masters programmes;
- > Applicants must have proof of academic excellence in previous levels of education;
- > Applicants shall provide a motivational letter indicating why they desire to undertake the particular course; applicants holding leadership positions or portray potential for future leadership may have an added advantage;
- > Current or past employment in relevant programme areas and/or engagement in social, developmental and/or political sphere(s) may be an additional advantage;
- > Priority will be given to applicants with genuine financial needs;

Please note: Continuing students are eligible to apply if they fulfil the above criteria. Future students can apply for scholarships even before they are admitted, but a scholarship may only be granted after confirmation of admission at UMU. Note: KAS is not responsible for admission to Uganda Martyrs University. This process is handled exclusively by the University.

The Scholarship Package

For successful candidates, the scholarship shall cover the cost of tuition and the residential workshops as charged by the university. The student is expected on his/her own or through other sources to meet the cost of transport, books, research and other expenses on the study.

Successful candidates from South Sudan shall have the cost for international air or bus tickets to Uganda as well as their visa for the residential workshops covered under the scholarship. The student shall however still meet all costs of inland travel either in Uganda or South Sudan.
