

SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAMME

KONRAD-ADENAUER-STIFTUNG GREECE / CYPRUS

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS

The Greece and Cyprus Office of the Konrad-Adenauer-Stiftung (KAS) is offering scholarships for postgraduate studies and unpaid programmes of academic nature (e.g. research stays, scientific activities, traineeships) in Greece or Cyprus. The scholarships are awarded to candidates of exceptional academic achievement and outstanding social - political engagement.

Who can apply?

Candidates of Greek or Cypriot nationality who wish to pursue (or are already enrolled in) postgraduate programmes at a Greek or Cypriot public university, or execute a non-paid activity of scientific nature (vocational training, traineeship, research stay etc.) at a scientific/research organisation, think-tank, institute of higher education or university in Greece or Cyprus.

Amount of the scholarship?

300 EUR in Athens – Thessaloniki and in Cyprus, 250 EUR for the rest of Greece

How to apply?

Via sending an application and all the necessary documents mentioned in the Questionnaire.

Eligibility Criteria?

- Strong motivation, engagement, high academic merit, multifaceted extracurricular activities
- Applications for PhD or undergraduate studies are excluded from the scholarship programme

Applications deadline?

Monday 18 April 2022 via mail to info.athen@kas.de

For more information, visit: www.kas.de/web/griechenland

Contact Person

Eleftherios Petropoulos

Project Manager/Research Associate, KAS Greece and Cyprus Office

email: eleftherios.petropoulos@kas.de