

Konrad
Adenauer
Stiftung

With the support of:

Ίδρυμα Κωνσταντίνος Κ. Μητσοτάκης
Konstantinos K. Mitsotakis Foundation

Call for Applications

3rd KAS Greece Political Academy

Crete (Chania), 2-4 December 2016

Konrad-Adenauer-Stiftung Greece welcomes applications for its 3rd Political Academy which will take place from 2 to 4 December 2016 in Crete (Chania).

The KAS Political Academy offers skills development for young people who already are or want to be involved in student, youth, and local politics, as well as the civil society. Through the KAS Political Academy the participants will have the chance to get a broader understanding about the complex political, social and economic environment of Greece and the EU, and get familiar with the values of the European centre-right. The objective of the Political Academy is to provide the participants with knowledge and technical expertise in order to enhance their ability to shape their political argumentation.

For those interested, the KAS Political Academy offers a unique opportunity to acquire new knowledge and skills through the interaction with academics, experts and political actors. Certificates of participation will be awarded.

The Call is open to applicants from Crete up to 35 years old, with a very good command of English and Greek, active involvement in political affairs and/or the civil society, as well as a keen interest in European and Greek politics

In order to apply, please fill in the relevant application form and send it by Tuesday, 15 November 2016 to Jeroen.Kohls@kas.de. For more information, please send your queries to the same email address.

More information on the Konrad-Adenauer-Stiftung Greece Office and its activities can be found here: <http://www.kas.de/griechenland/en/>.

The 3rd KAS Greece Political Academy in Crete will be supported by the Konstantinos K. Mitsotakis Foundation.