

The future of the EU in the light of its modern challenges

Working languages are English and Greek

The EU is faced with multiple political, economic and societal challenges. Many voices call for a reorientation of the Union towards the acceleration and further deepening of the integration process, the strengthening of the EU's presence in the world, but also a return to its core values and principles. Which issues call for an immediate answer and which measures can be taken in order to safeguard and develop the foundations and heritage of the European forefathers on both legal and political level?
