

ADENAUER JOURNALISM SCHOLARSHIP

The KAS Media Programme South East Europe starts a new call for its scholarship programme for journalism Bachelor (B.A.) students. And for Master (M.A.) students of all majors with a parallel proven engagement at a media outlet. The scholars will receive a monthly grant. Moreover, they will have the opportunity for exchange with distinguished media experts and peers from the region and beyond. The Adenauer Journalism Scholarship is intended for students enrolled at universities in Albania, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Bulgaria, Croatia, Kosovo, Moldova, Montenegro, North Macedonia, Romania and Serbia.

Requirements for the applicants:

- Students specialising in journalism from the 2nd academic year for B.A.
- M.A. students of all majors with a parallel proven engagement at a media outlet from the 1st academic year onwards
- Distinctive interest in social and political issues
- Identification with the values of the Konrad-Adenauer-Stiftung (democracy, freedom, rule of law, pluralism, solidarity, European unification)
- Willingness to actively participate in KAS events and commitment to the network of KAS scholars
- Experience in volunteering is desirable
- Very good English language skills (German is an advantage, but not a necessity)
- After each academic year, the scholars must submit a short report on their academic development and their activities within the framework of the scholarship

Two-stage selection process:

1. Selection based on the following documents:

- CV in tabular form
- Letter of motivation
- Copies of course achievements and / or examination certificates
- Proof of language skills
- Letter of recommendation from a university teacher (professor / lecturer)

2. Personal interview in English or German language

Application deadline: 10th of June 2025 at media.europe@kas.de
