

Expert roundtable:

“The battlefield as a place of memory: from confrontation to understanding”

within the frames of the project “Places of memory: a European perspective on overcoming past trauma”

Date: April 21st, 2022

Venue: online

Time: 15:00-17:00 (GMT + 3)

Languages: Belarusian and English

Experts:

- | | |
|----------------------------|---|
| Hienadz Sahanovich | Doctor Habilitated, historian, visiting professor at the University of Warsaw, founder and editor-in-chief of the Belarusian Historical Review, Belarus |
| Aliaksandar Kazakou | Candidate of Historical Sciences, historian and independent researcher, Belarus |
| Olesia Isaiuk | Doctor of Humanities, historian, researcher at the Center for Liberation Movement Studies and "The Lontsky Street Prison Memorial Museum ", Ukraine |
| Maarten Van Alstein | Doctor of Political Science, historian, senior researcher at the Flemish Peace Institute, Belgium |

Moderator:

- | | |
|--------------------------|-----------------------------|
| Kiryll Atamanchyk | Master of Cultural Heritage |
|--------------------------|-----------------------------|

Special guest:

- | | |
|----------------------|--|
| Martti Häikiö | Professor, historian, Member of Martens Center Academic Council, Finland |
|----------------------|--|

Interpreters:

Vadim Vileita
Alina Stefanovich

Programme

Thursday, April 21st, 2022

- 15:00 – 15:10 Welcome words by
Kiryll Atamanchyk
- 15:10 – 15:25 Welcome words by
Martti Häikiö
- 15:25 – 15:40 The memory of the Battle of Grunwald: from the division
to the unification of nations
by Hienadz Sahanovich
- 15:40 – 15:50 The Battle of Orsha in 1514 as a place of remembrance in Belarus, Lithuania, Poland, Ukraine and Russia: is an understanding possible?
by Aliaksandar Kazakou
- 15:50 – 16 :00 Break
- 16:00 – 16:15 The Battle of Lviv in 1944 in the memory of the region: in the face of fear
by Olesia Isaiuk
- 16:15 -16 :30 The Great War in Ypres, Flanders: Local Memories of War and Peace
by Maarten Van Alstein
- 16:30 -17:00 Discussion

The seminar receives financial support from the European Parliament. Sole liability rests with the organizer, the European Parliament is not responsible for the activity.