

BIOGRAPHIES

(In alphabetical order)

Agarwala, Ramgopal

Dr. Ramgopal Agarwala is Distinguished Fellow at the Research and Information System for Developing Countries (RIS) in New Delhi, India. He earned his Ph.D. at Manchester University and his research focus includes Macro-modelling, Macroeconomic management, regional economic cooperation, pension system reform and foreign aid for development and development policy paradigm. He joined the World Bank in 1971 and worked there in various senior positions. He was the chief of the Economic Unit of the World Bank in Beijing from 1993-96.

Ahmed, Sadig

Dr. Sadiq Ahmed is currently Vice Chairman of the Policy Research Institute of Bangladesh. He earned his Ph.D. in Economics at Boston University. He joined the Young Professional program of the World Bank in 1981 and held several key positions including Country Director of the Pakistan and Afghanistan Program in Islamabad, Chief Economist, South Asia Region and Sector Director of Poverty Reduction and Economic Management for the South Asia Region in Washington D.C. He retired from the World Bank in 2009 and returned to Bangladesh.

Carthew, Alastair

Mr. Alastair Carthew has almost 40 years experience as a newspaper and broadcasting journalist, public relations executive, presenter, editor, researcher and senior manager in many different countries. He was chief parliamentary reporter for Television New Zealand, editor for a current affairs programme and New Zealand correspondent for Newsweek and The Christian Science Monitor. Furthermore Mr. Carthew held senior public affairs positions at several large companies including Star Alliance and Air New Zealand. He has also co-authored and contributed to a number of books produced by Konrad-Adenauer-Stiftung.

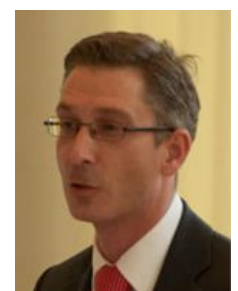

Kaczmarczyk, Marcin

Graduated from Warsaw School of Economics with two master diplomas in Finance and Banking (comparison of Japanese accounting <JGAAP> system with IFRS/IAS), and in International Relations (Polish labour force on German labour market). Graduated from National School of Public Administration in Poland. Studied at well recognised WHU Otto Beisheim School of Management in Vallendar (Germany). Spent research year at the University of Bonn. Worked in Ministry of Finance at the Bureau of the Governmental Representative for introduction of euro in Poland. Currently he works as a researcher at Warsaw School of Economics and is working for Supreme Auditing Office of Poland

Schmidt, André

André Schmidt holds a Ph.D. from the University of Hohenheim and received his habilitation at the Georg-August University Goettingen. He had worked at both universities and acted as temporary professor at the Ruhr University Bochum and Kassel University before. In 2007 he became Professor for International Economics at the European Business School, International University Schloss Reichartshausen Oestrich-Winkel. Since 2008, Prof. Schmidt holds the chair for macro economics and international economic relations at the Private University of Witten/Herdecke. He is a member of several associations and institutions, including the Centre for Globalization and Europeanization of the Economy in Goettingen and the Walter Eucken Institute at the University of Freiburg.

Song, Hong

Dr. Song Hong is Assistant Director, Senior Fellow and Director of International Trade Research Division at the Institute of World Economics and Politics (IWEP), Chinese Academy of Social Sciences (CASS). He is also Professor of the Graduate School of CASS. Professor Song is an Economist, his study focuses on trade and investment issues. His research focus includes the impact of multinational enterprises on industrial development in developing countries, especially in China, Foreign Direct Investments and Transnational Corporations and the Industrial Development of Developing Economies.

Tham, Siew Yean

Prof. Dr. Siew Yean Tham is a Professor and Principal Research Fellow at the Institute of Malaysian and International Studies (IKMAS), National University of Malaysia (NUM). She received her Ph.D. in Economics at the University of Rochester and was a Lecturer at the Faculty of Economics & Business at NUM from 1978 until 2001 and later Associate Professor at the same Faculty from 1993 until 2002. Professor Tham has published a number of books, chapters in books and journal articles on foreign direct investment, industrial development and trade in services in Malaysia, including the higher education sector.